

Lesson X

Presentation day

Goal: To give each student the opportunity to explain why their President would be a good leader.

Objective: This lesson will allow the students to:
Deliver speeches similar to a leader
Discover reasons they may be good candidates for leadership.

Time: 1 hour

Today is speech day. Each student will be given the opportunity to deliver their speech on why their President should be our leader. After each child has given their speech, ask the following:

Did you enjoy delivering the speech?

What was difficult?

What was easy?

Do you think you would be a good leader after learning about leadership? Why or why not?
