Activity – Live Audio Book

The following lesson will encourage students to learn and apply new vocabulary by creating a live audio book using the word.

1. Divide students into groups of 3 or 4.
2. Give each team one word above their grade level (also write it on the board).
  - a. Give sixth grade students eighth grade words such as: forfeit, hover, revenue, dispatch, and tycoon.
  - b. Conduct an Internet search for words on a certain grade level.
3. Have each team guess what they think the word means and write it on paper.
4. Have each team tell the class their word and their guess for the definition.
  - a. This should be a fun activity!
5. Now give each team the correct definition for the word from a dictionary.
6. If possible, use the word in a sentence.
7. If possible, show the students a picture that uses the word.
  - a. The picture on the right is an example.
8. Tell students they will create a live audio book using their vocabulary word.
9. Have each group create a story using their vocabulary word.

10. The stories should have...
  - a. a beginning, middle, and end
  - b. the word's definition and synonyms
  - c. a conflict that is being resolved in the story
11. After groups have created their stories, they will perform it for the class.
12. Each group must have a narrator, who will provide the audience with the story audio.
13. Each group can choose to have only the narrator speak or have both the narrator and actors speak.
14. Each group can have sound effects for their story (optional).
15. After each role play, the class should know the word, the definition, and synonyms connected with the word.
